

TIMOTHY G. MCEVOY
Tulane Law School
6329 Freret Street New Orleans LA 70118
(504-865-5997)
tmcevoy@tulane.edu

EXPERIENCE

Tulane University School of Law, New Orleans, LA June 2016 – present
Clinical Instructor, Domestic Violence Clinic

- Supervision of student attorneys and management of family law docket focusing exclusively on issues of domestic violence and sexual assault.
- Manage partnerships with other legal and non-legal service providers that assist victims of domestic violence and sexual assault.

Southeast Louisiana Legal Services, New Orleans, LA July 2012 – June 2016
Staff Attorney, Domestic Violence Litigation Specialist

- Provide legal counsel to low income and indigent survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault.
- Litigate long-term legal needs such as divorce, custody and permanent injunctions, as well as emergency motions such as protective orders.
- Provide mentorship to LSBA L.I.F.T. attorneys housed at the New Orleans Family Justice Center.
- Develop and maintain close working relationships with all major organizations in the Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault arena in New Orleans Metro Area.

Significant Accomplishments:

- Obtained successful resolution to over 150 divorce and custody matters.
- Successfully petitioned change in the Code of Civil Procedure to allow for use of affidavits in lieu of testimony in obtaining a judgment of divorce under Article 103.5.

Lead Attorney, Gulf Oil Spill Response. November 2010 - June 2012

- Provided legal counsel to low income clients on their rights under the Oil Pollution Act and other state and federal laws and statutes.
- Managed a team of attorneys and AmeriCorps staff in assisting over 500 clients with all aspects of the oil spill claims process and Multi-District Litigation.

Barrasso Usdin Kupperman Freeman & Sarver L.L.C., New Orleans, LA August 2008 – October 2010
Associate Attorney

- Assisted partners in all aspects of the litigation process
- Participated in depositions, counseling clients, and conducting settlement negotiations in securities and commercial disputes.

PRESENTATIONS

- “Litigating Family Law Cases Involving Domestic Violence”, New Orleans Family Justice Center Training, April 2017.
- “New Changes to Louisiana Domestic Violence Laws”, LSBA: Access to Justice Conference, October 2014.

- “Vehicles in State Court to Assist in SIJ Cases,” Pro Bono and Juveniles: An Immigration and Family Law CLE, September 2014.
- “Divorce, Custody and Permanent Injunctions Under Louisiana Law: Using the PSFVRA to Your Advantage”, Southeast Louisiana Domestic Violence Prevention and Intervention Training, June 2014.
- “Louisiana Sexual Assault Statutes”, Sexual Assault Workshop and Training, New Orleans Family Justice Center, June 2013

EDUCATION

American University, Washington College of Law, Washington, DC

Juris Doctor, May 2008, Cum Laude

Awards: Recipient of the 2007 Legal Research and Writing Dean’s Fellow Award

Pomona College, Claremont, CA

Bachelor of Arts, Economics and Politics, May 2002

BAR ADMISSIONS

Supreme Court of Louisiana (2008)

Supreme Court of Massachusetts (2012)

United States District Courts for the Eastern, Middle, and Western Districts of Louisiana

United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit

PROFESSIONAL MEMEBRSHIPS

American Bar Association

American Association of Law Schools

New Orleans Bar Association

Clinical Legal Education Association

OTHER

Teach For America, 2002-2004 New Orleans, 8th Grade Math Teacher at Fannie C. Williams Middle School.