CIVIL DIVISION, FEDERAL PROGRAMS BRANCH

Assistant Branch Director: 1980 - 1982

Trial Attorney: 1978 - 1980

I specialized in litigation of major doctrinal and institutional importance to the United States Government. This litigation focused primarily on important and novel issues of Constitutional Law and Administrative Law and was handled in federal district and appellate courts. A table of the cases formally designated "significant" by the Civil Division and other matters for which I assumed major responsibility is attached. Upon promotion to Assistant Branch Director, I assumed, in addition to litigation responsibilities, principal review responsibilities for approximately fifty cases handled by Civil Division attorneys and responsibility for the formulation of litigation and policy positions of the United States. I also conducted periodic training seminars that instructed new attorneys on federal trial practice and the federal rules of civil procedure.

Honors: Civil Division Special Achievement Award, October 24, 1980

Outstanding Performance Rating, June 30, 1980

Attorney General Special Commendation Award,
May 1, 1980

Exceptional Performance Rating, June 30, 1981

Attorney General Special Commendation Award, January 17, 1983
